

Wireless Internet connection (WiFi) in the SVK PK general study room

1. Wireless Internet connection (henceforth WiFi) is available to registered users (Library Regulations, Article 6: Registration Regulations) in the general study room of the Study and Research Library of the Pilsener Region.
2. This service is not legally covered and the library is therefore not responsible for any failure or decrease in quality or any damage incurred by its users.
3. The library is not responsible for any obligations which may result between users of the WiFi service and third parties.
4. The library does not provide users with technical equipment (notebook, PDA etc) for this service and does not provide technical support for users utilising this service with their own personal technical equipment.
5. Utilisation of the WiFi service is possible at a designated workstation in the study room after submission of a valid library membership card and in accordance with Article 10 of the Library Regulations: Rules for the Use of Computer Technology.
6. Technical parameters:

The user's personal device (notebook, PDA etc) with HW according to the norm IEEE 802.11b and IEEE 802.11g; IP configuration is received from the DHCP server; SSID: SVKPL; speed is determined the version of IEEE – 802.11b has 11Mb/s or IEEE – 802.11g has 54Mb/s; only http and https protocols are accepted; communication is uncyphered; two WiFi adapters are available, one for USB and the other for a PCMCIA card.